

Action policy of Student Trade Union Committee of Azerbaijan Technological University

Azerbaijan Technological University (ATU) Student Trade Union Committee (STUC) is an institution that protects the rights of students and ensures their social, economic and cultural interests. STUC takes an important place in youth policy, encourages students to actively participate in the educational process and society, and ensures the protection of their rights. The activity of this organization is based on improving the well-being of students, solving their social problems and expanding both educational and career opportunities of young people. The action policy of STUC is reflected in several points in the following lines.

1. Social and Economic Protection: One of the main functions of STUC is to ensure social and economic protection of students. Payment of tuition fees, obtaining social benefits and providing other financial support for students are among the priority tasks of STUC. The meanwhile, this organization carries out activities to improve the living conditions of students, makes proposals for improving conditions in student dormitories, increasing scholarships and expanding student job opportunities. In this way, STUC helps to support students both in their educational life and financially.

2. Legal Protection and Protection of Rights: STUC is one of the main institutions that protect students' rights. In case of violations of students' rights, discrimination or injustice in educational institutions, STUC is involved in solving these issues and takes appropriate measures to protect students' legal rights. At the same time, STUC provides advice and support to students in legal matters and tries to increase their legal knowledge. In this regard, STUC plays an important role in the social and legal protection of students.

3. Youth Leadership and Social Activity: STUC is also aimed at increasing the leadership and social activity of young people. Through STUC, students participate in organizational activities and develop teamwork, leadership and management skills. The organization involves students in various events, conferences and public discussions, ensuring that they are more active in public processes. Such activities create conditions for the development of students as individuals and their greater contribution to society.

4. Youth Participation in Socio-Economic Life: STUC implements various events and projects in order to increase the participation of young people in socio-economic life. Through social responsibility projects, volunteering programs, and events focused on social issues, students play an active role in various areas of society. In this way, STUC ensures the integration of young people into society, increases their social responsibility, and contributes to national and international cooperation.

5. Supporting Cultural and Sports Activities: STUC supports students' cultural and sports activities. The organization helps students in their comprehensive development by organizing sports competitions, cultural events and creative competitions. These activities contribute to the development of students not only academically, but also physically and spiritually. Various excursions, music festivals and other social events are also carried out by STUC for the efficient organization of students' free time.

6. The role of STUC in the Promotion of Youth Policy: The youth policy of the Republic of Azerbaijan is aimed at shaping young people as active members of society and creating conditions for their active participation in social, economic and cultural life. STUC plays an important role in the implementation of this policy. The organization tries to protect their rights and improve their living conditions by conveying the problems of student youth to the public and relevant state institutions. STUC's initiatives serve the welfare of young people and encourage them to be more active in educational institutions and society.

In general, it can be said that the Student Union Committee is an institution that plays an important role in the social, economic and legal protection of student youth. Its activity, in addition to ensuring the integration of young people into society, develops their sense of leadership, social activity and social responsibility. STUC is an invaluable platform for the implementation of youth policy and improving the socio-economic well-being of students. For this reason, the role of STUC in youth policy is of great importance for the development of both students and society.
